iMEDUCON 2026

Poster Presentation

1. Eligibility

- Open to undergraduate, postgraduate students, faculty, and researchers in medical and allied health sciences.
- Each participant may present only one poster as first author.
- Co-authorship is permitted (maximum 3 co-authors), but only the presenting author will be recognized for awards.

2. Abstract Submission

- Abstracts must be submitted online before the deadline.
- Word limit: 250–300 words (structured: Background, Methods, Results, Conclusion).
- Abstracts must represent original work; plagiarism will lead to disqualification.
- Acceptance will be communicated via email.

3. Poster Specifications

- E-Poster landscape orientation.
- Font size must be readable (minimum 24 pt for body text).
- Posters must include:
- oTitle, Author(s), Institution
- oIntroduction, Objectives, Methods, Results, Conclusion
- o References and Acknowledgements (if applicable)
- Use of visuals, charts, and diagrams is encouraged for clarity.
- Posters must be in English (unless otherwise specified).

4. Presentation Guidelines

- Each presenter will be allotted 5 minutes to explain their poster, followed by 2 minutes Q&A.
- Presenter must be physically present during the session; proxy presentations are not allowed.
- Posters must be displayed at the designated area 30 minutes before the session begins.
- Any conflict of interest must be declared.

5. Evaluation Criteria

Posters will be judged on:

- Originality & Innovation (20%)
- Scientific Rigor & Methodology (25%)
- Visual Design & Clarity (20%)
- Relevance to Medical Education (20%)
- Engagement during Q&A (15%)

6. General Regulations

- Participants must register for the conference to present.
- Presenters should arrive 15 minutes before their scheduled session.
- Any use of copyrighted material must be properly acknowledged.
- Decisions of the Scientific Committee are final and binding.
- Misconduct (plagiarism, falsification of data, disrespectful behavior) will result in disqualification